

WISCONSIN RIVER WOODCARVERS

RICH WETHERBEE SEMINAR

Rich Wetherbee started carving at a very early age. His father, an excellent carver himself, let Rich carry a jackknife, and taught him the basics of grain direction and stop cuts. Rich started carving and sculpting the same time around 1982. He is a member of the Caricature Carvers of America and teaches wood carving and design throughout the United States. His hope is that his talent and experience will help wood carvers reach their potential and keep the excitement of this great art form alive. He resides in Colorado Springs, CO. Check out his website www.weatherbeecollectionllc.com. You could do either wood or clay. If you do the clay seminar, Rich will provide all necessary tools. No experience needed to do the clay seminar. Also the clay seminar would be open to 14 – 17 year old students. Rich needs minimum of (6) students and maximum of (12) students.
